

EmployABILITY Business Grant Introduction Video Transcript

[Music plays.]

VOICEOVER:

If you own a small- to medium-size business in California and want to expand your operations, you could qualify for a grant of up to two hundred thousand dollars.

And unlike a bank loan, you'll never have to pay back a dime.

That's up to two hundred thousand dollars you can use for equipment, computers, software, training, on-boarding, accessibility upgrades and more.

For making a commitment to hiring individuals with disabilities--the largest untapped talent pool in the state...

One with high productivity, low absenteeism, and strong loyalty to your organization.

The EmployABILITY Business Grant can even cover your new hire's first month's wages. An EmployABILITY Business Grant gives you...

The ABILITY to grow your business...

The ABILITY to fund your expansion without debt...

The ABILITY to hire great workers other companies are missing.

To find out if your business qualifies for up to two hundred thousand dollars in grant money, visit our website at employabilityca.com and apply for your free and easy EmployABILITY Business Grant today.
